Fashionable cafes, impressive restaurants and crowded nightclubs vie for your attention, while sushi bars and art galleries have taken up residence in a city centre once totally remodelled to the tastes of Stalin, in the Soviet Union.

Our experienced guides will tell you interesting facts and stories about Minsk and Belarus, will reveal the connection of times, and will move you to the era of the Minsk "Babylon". You will visit the Upper Town, Independence Square, Independence Avenue and much more. It feels like the world first learned about the word “rhombicuboctahedron” after the construction of the national library of Belarus. With 18 square and 8 triangular faces, this eccentric geometric shape has been turning heads since the library’s construction. It symbolizes the value of knowledge and the infinity of the perceptible world. At night the library is illuminated and shows various displays. Due to its unusual shape and bright illumination, the library has almost become one of the key attractions in Minsk. The open-air observation deck is located over 70 meters above the ground in the upper part of the repository. Visitors can take a panoramic elevator to it to enjoy amazing city views.
